	Proposition K is a trafficker's dream. To pimps and johns, it would declare open season on women and children, putting those involved in prostitution in even more danger and removing them even farther from urgently needed help. Prostitution is an extremely dangerous activity for those in it. They are not any safer if they are offered for sale just like Kleenex, which is what this ballot measure would do.	8 9 7 9 7 2
	Most women, men, children, and transgendered individuals who are trapped in prostitution in San Francisco are domestically or internationally trafficked. Having been systematically sexually abused and exploited, 90% of them want to get out of prostitution. Measure K would de-fund educational programs that offer victims of trafficking help and the means to escape. We need more housing, addiction treatment, mental health and job counseling for those in prostitution – not fewer services.	7 6 9 6 8 2
	Let's defeat this measure. Let's enforce the existing state laws against pimps, johns, and traffickers. Let's develop a progressive social policy and legal response to the human rights violations of trafficking and prostitution.	8 7 3

In 10 years of operations serving homeless women, SafeHouse for Women Leaving Prostitution's client surveys record:

- 75% had extended periods of homelessness
- 90% had major mental health diagnoses
- 90% suffered severe child abuse and/or incest before age 18
- 90% had long-term drug addiction
- 57% never completed high school
- 75% are mothers with children in the system
- They averaged 19 years in prostitution beginning as young as 12.

Proposition K cuts funds for supporting prostituted women in changing their lives. Don't abandon them to pimps and other predators. Vote No on K.

San Francisco Women Say: Vote No on K   7

In its official response to Proposition K, the San Francisco District Attorney's office stated: 13

"The measure is based on the inaccurate and harmful premise that prostitution is a victimless crime.   16
Repeated studies document that the vast majority of prostituted people have been victims of repeated   15 abuse, violence and molestation. Often, they have been coerced, tricked, threatened or beaten into   14 participating in commercial sex. Their "choice" to engage in the commercial sex trade is not meaningful.   16

Many victims of sexual exploitation and trafficking are children. According to recent studies, the   14 average age that a person enters the commercial sex trade is 13 years old. Our office has encountered   18 prostituted children as young as nine years old. Minors cannot, as a matter of law, consent to   17 molestation. By barring enforcement of laws against prostitution, the measure attempts to place a   14 group of molested children and teens outside the protection of the city's law enforcement system. This   16 would be inhumane and irresponsible."

	Measure K, if it passes, will damage the most vulnerable among us. It will prevent enforcement of laws against people who violate their human rights.	10 9 6
	Measure K will prohibit prostitution investigations. Sex trafficking investigations result from prostitution investigations. Sex traffickers will gain virtual immunity. They know this. Measure K proponents hide it.
	Measure K would cripple prosecution of sex traffickers and hobble human rights groups and social service agencies in helping people escape prostitution. Women, children, and immigrants—the vast majority of those in prostitution—will be abandoned, along with their human rights.
	Human traffickers often victimize those from a single racial or national group. Under this measure, the San Francisco Police Department could not seek or accept federal funds to investigate organized crime rings exploiting victims of an identifiable race or nationality. Investigations into severe crimes that disproportionately effect women of color, children, and immigrants will be prohibited.
	Measure K hides the true nature of prostitution and misrepresents our labor laws. Prostitution is not covered by labor laws because it is known to be so dangerous and degrading that it can never be made safe and nonexploitive.
	Sex traffickers flock to destinations where law enforcement

	Proposition K strips San Francisco of ANY ability to investigate and prosecute human trafficking crimes - crimes that we know disproportionally affect women, children and immigrants.	13 / 11
	Recently over 100 women were trafficked into the Bay Area, mostly young adults, vulnerable and abused. Should Proposition K pass, victims of human trafficking and forced prostitution like those 100 women would have no protection or support and law enforcement would be forced to ignore any prostitution-related illegal activities.	15 / 14 / 17 / 4
	To turn a blind eye to women and children who have been exploited in the sex industry is a crime. Proposition K puts women in danger, emboldens their abusers and encourages human traffickers and pimps to seek refuge in our City.	20 / 14 / 7
	This is a matter of human rights.
	I urge you to help protect victims of sex trafficking by joining me, District Attorney Kamala Harris and the San Francisco Police in voting NO on Proposition K.	17 / 10

Don't turn San Francisco into a sanctuary city for prostitutes.

Prop. K is an irresponsible measure which will hurt our neighborhoods.
It would force the City to stop enforcing existing laws on prostitution -- increasing the likelihood for more violent prostitution on our streets.
It would also eliminate two programs -- First Offender and Standing Against Global Exploitation (SAGE) -- that work to end sexual exploitation.
